Hello,

Later this month we'll be hosting the Q3 Employee Meetings with our own Scott Morris and the Chief Executive Officer of Hydro One, Mayo Schmidt.

The scheduled is included below for your reference. We also plan to offer a dial-in connection for employees who can't attend in-person.

You might notice that our schedule has changed a bit for this set of meetings. If you have employees located at the Spokane Contact Center or Project Center, please have them attend one of the sessions offered at the Mission Campus Auditorium.

The meetings will be a great way for all employees to learn more about Hydro One and their leadership.

Other resources for employees to stay connected with relevant updates or to reference information related to the acquisition can be found here [link to AVAnet]. We've also added a weekly update section in e.view as well.
